The Aliso Niguel Boys Basketball program includes FIVE Wolverine Basketball Teams that operate on donations from parents and the community. We are 90% self-funded. The donation is based on a planned budget to provide a top-quality program and excellent team experience for all boys who have been selected to play basketball, minus the planned fundraising revenue.

Donation Options

☐ OPTION #1: Payment in full - $1,000

With this option you can pay in full at the parent meeting, or pay in 4 monthly installments of $262 (includes service fee). You will not be required to contribute financially towards any additional fundraisers (excluding Taste of Aliso) that we hold this season.

☐ OPTION #2: Partial payment 'A' - $750

With this option you can pay in full at the parent meeting, or pay in 4 monthly installments of $200 (includes service fee). You are responsible for participating in all fundraising efforts for the season. This will include, but may not be limited to, a shoot-a-thon, candy bar sales, Taste of Aliso, and a JV Tournament hosted by our program.

☐ OPTION #3: Partial payment 'B' - $225/$325 or $0

With this option you can solicit a company to sponsor the program (cost to them is $525) and we will hang a banner in the gym advertising their business. If you sell one banner your contribution will be $225 for a new banner or $325 for a renewal, if you sell 2 banners your contribution is $0. If you are interested in this option, please contact Eva Vernaza (alisoboysbasketball@gmail.com) for a list of the companies already sponsoring the program so you know which companies to avoid in your solicitation efforts. You are responsible for participating in all fundraising efforts for the season. This will include, but may not be limited to, a shoot-a-thon, candy bar sales, Taste of Aliso, and a JV Tournament hosted by our program.
